

Paw Prints

Charitable Research Reserve

Did you know?

There are an estimated 4000 species of spiders in North America!

Not all spiders are web builders, some stalk their prey like a lion.

Spider silk is thought to be one of the strongest materials ever found in nature.

The Goliath Birdeater Tarantula is the largest spider in the world, with a leg span up to 25 cm!

Colour Me!

Illustration by supercoloring.com

Paw Prints

Charitable Research Reserve

Help the spider find the fly caught in her web!

Illustrations by Istafa Sufi